

Positive values indicate more generous ratings than the other evaluators; negative values indicate stricter ratings.